PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24.

SPEECH OF MR. CLAY,

At the Whig Meeting in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, November 17, 1847.

A day of great political excitement, in Philadelphia, has passed away, and we have to record the success of the Whig party, in regard to the national one, with a degree of satisfaction, which we hope will be felt throughout the country, by all who are friends to public convenience, and especially to the success of the Whig party, which we hope will be the party of the country.

It is under these circumstances I proceed to give the speech of Mr. Clay, which we have the pleasure to publish, in the hope that it will be the means of the honest minded, intelligent, and patriotic portion of the Democratic party, who have been misled, by the high sounding, but hollow and fallacious cry, of opposition to the party, and to the measures of the Whig party, in the hope that it will be the means of inducing them to reflection, and to a return to the Whig party, from which they have been misled.

We have the pleasure of publishing, in our paper, a speech, which we have taken from the Philadelphia Ledger, and which we have found to be a very correct one, and consequently we have thought it unnecessary to publish it, in our paper, in the form in which we received it, from our contemporary.

SPECIE.—The specie imported into the United States during 26 years, beginning in 1821, amounts according to the records of the Treasury Department, to $221,654,605. The specie exported during the same period, amounts to $16[illegible],425,779. The difference is $50,158,826. The amount in the country in 1820, has been estimated at $20,000,000. The amount imported and receiving, since June 30, 1846, is about $20,000,000. According to this, the quantity now in the country is about $100,600,000. But we believe that the amount in the country must be greater. The gold mines of the South yield something annually. Some amount is probably smuggled from Mexico and New Mexico, through Texas, Arkansas and Missouri. And if large quantities of gold and silver are consumed in the arts, large quantities are imported by immigrants which do not pass through the custom-houses. We regard the estimate of $20,000,000, for 1820, as too small. The banks alone did not show the whole amount; nor was all in circulation which was not contained in the banks. The old German population of Pennsylvania have always been disposed to hoard coin; and in 1820, probably not less than $5,000,000 were so hoarded in the counties of York, Lancaster and Berks. We shall probably not exceed the truth in estimating the coin now in the Union at $120,000,000.

But this amount is small, compared with the population, business and resources of the country. The present population of the Union is about 25,000,000; and they consume more than any 25,000,000 in any other country on earth. In no country are the masses so well fed, clothed and lodged, or do they spend so much for such variety of comforts. The population of France is about 35,000,000; and as a people, they are much poorer than the Americans, though far richer than the French before the Revolution of 1789. In 1836, the coin in all France amounted to $650,000,000, the amount in circulation to $500,000,000, the annual coinage to $90,000,000. This whole quantity gives an average of $18.57 to each soul. The quantity in circulation gives an average of $14.28, and the coinage an average of $2.57 to each soul. But $120,000,000 among a population of 25,000,000 give an average of only $4.40 to each soul. The Americans are much more commercial than the French, and therefore would not only require more money for a given population, but would cause it to circulate more rapidly. Why then is the French average of circulation $14.28, while the American is only $4.40, or only about 31 per cent. of the former?

The explanation is found in paper money. The French have but one bank, in Paris, issuing no notes under $100; the American, have a multitude in each State, the majority of them issuing notes for $1. The recent returns from the banks of New York show a capital of 43½ millions, a circulation of 20½ millions, and about 9 millions in coin. If we estimate the coin in circulation at 1½ million, a high estimate for a State containing a legion of banks, issuing notes for $1, the whole circulation of the State is only 27½ millions. The population being 2,750,000, the average is only $10. But if all this paper were extinguished, its place would be supplied by coin, at least to the amount of $15,000,000, if not the whole $20,250,000. Such being the banking capital, circulation, and specie in bank, in New York. The rest of the Union contains not less than fifty times as much more. Hence the whole banking capital is about $260,000,000, the whole circulation about $155,000,000, and the whole amount of coin in vault about $54,000,000. If then the country contain $120,000,000, the whole amount in circulation, or hoarded by individuals, is $66,000,000, and the whole circulation about $225,000,000, or an average of $9, less than the French average by $5.28. We have said that money circulated more rapidly among the Americans than the French; and this would enable the former to transact more business upon a lower average of circulation.

But of our circulation, the proportion of paper to coin is enormous. It is about 225 per cent. If all this paper were annihilated, its place would be supplied by coin, either to the whole amount, or to an amount amply sufficient for the present business. And if the necessary amount should be less than the actual, the abstraction would reduce prices, and enable us to make more and import less. What then is the use of paper money?

SPEECH OF MR. CLAY.—We present to the readers of the Ledger the speech of Mr. Clay, lately delivered at Lexington, which does not differ much in substance from the brief synopsis already published; but as Mr. Clay is a great public man, it is best to hear him in his own words, in order that his views may not be misrepresented. He is opposed to taking any territory by force, and would give up all beyond the Nueces rather than have a war. He would like, however, a port on the Pacific, if Mexico would be willing to surrender it; but would yield even that rather than prosecute the war a single hour. We do not wish to renew the discussion upon Mr. Clay's peculiar views of the policy of his government, the public sentiment is not in favor of them, and will never agree to his propositions. There is one point which alone is sufficient argument against them. If we abandon California, England takes it. Heretofore, she would not risk a war with us for it. But if we formally abandon it, we close our mouth against all objection to English occupation; and England, creditor for eighty millions which Mexico cannot pay, will take California for part, and a right of away across Tehuantepec for another part. And then, with the immense maritime resources of Upper Oregon, the superb harbors of California, and the short cut to Europe across Mexico, will she control the commerce of the Pacific, including the whale fisheries? And if we keep a narrow strip, a single harbor, how long will England let us keep it? In a war between the two countries, down would come the British fleet from Upper Oregon, and capture our narrow strip. Could we defend it? With no American population around it, with no maritime resources on the Pacific, for which we may thank the statesmanlike sagacity that surrendered Upper Oregon, with no short cut across Mexico, for which we shall thank Mr. Clay, we should find its defence rather difficult. And if it should fall, the English would soon make of it a Gibraltar, and then say, "retake it if ye can!"

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—The President's message is already becoming the subject of comment and conjecture, indicating pretty clearly that it will be closely scanned and severely analyzed after it falls into the public hands. Mr. Polk, no doubt, anticipates this, and will, therefore, take more than usual pains to present a state paper that will bear the close examination it will receive, and be creditable to the branch of the Government from which it emanates. There are materials in the Mexican triumphs for a splendid document, and as it will be copied into all the European journals, even those which have purposely kept the interesting events in Mexico from being fully and freely presented to their readers, the Executive will doubtless give a prominence to the glory which the American arms have acquired in Mexico, and show the world what young America is.

THE NON-ENFORCEMENT OF A LAW NULLIFIES IT.—The Militia Law of Maryland has been declared a nullity by one of the courts, and that no fines could be collected, because it had not been regularly and annually enforced, as required by its own provisions. If the non-enforcement of a law nullifies it in fact—it does so practically—it is certainly an easy way of getting rid of an objectionable law, and relieves the Legislature of half its duty.

A GANG OF ROBBERS were arrested near Boston on Friday last. They called themselves by name Chas. Edwards, John Williams and James Wilson. It is suspected that they were concerned in the robbery of the City Treasury, on Friday night, 12th inst. About $200 in gold, supposed to be a portion of the plunder, was found in the house, and every kind of burglarious instrument necessary for the accomplishment of thief. Also, pistols, loaded with powder and ball.

A YOUNG COLONEL AND A FINE REGIMENT.—The Colonel of the Tennessee Regiment is but twenty-three years old. The individuals composing it are, most of them, in comfortable circumstances, and have joined the regiment, impelled solely by a desire to serve their country and advance the honor of her arms.

GEO. M. DALLAS.—The Camden (N. J.) Democrat has raised the name of George M. Dallas as a candidate for the Presidency. A call for a meeting, in Camden, favorable to his nomination, has been made.

A COMPLIMENT.—A number of the friends and admirers of C. C. Burr, Esq., intend to present him with a splendid edition of Shakspeare, because of his liberality in lecturing for the benefit of charitable and literary associations of this city.

FIRE IN NORRISTOWN.—On Friday night last the oil mill of Mr. Geo. Zink, in Norristown, Montgomery county, was destroyed by fire.

THANKSGIVING.—To-morrow will be celebrated by at least three fourths of the States of this Union, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to the Giver of all good for his manifold blessings to us. It will be a season of feasting and not of fasting, for as the Lord has bountifully given, man may best express his gratitude when he is bountifully partaking. Sermons, appropriate to the occasion, will be delivered in the churches, to be followed by the Thanksgiving feast at home with all the members of the family assembled around the family board. It is a beautiful custom and should recommend itself to general favor if it were only for the reunion of friends which it brings about, not to speak of the duty which man owes to his Creator for the bounties that He so unsparingly bestows.

The following are the States that have fixed upon the 25th of November for Thanksgiving Day. Arkansas and Vermont have chosen December 2d.

Maryland,	Ohio,
New York,	Delaware,
Maine,	Kentucky,
Massachusetts,	Mississippi,

SIGNIFICANT!—An incident is told in one of the papers which is more significant than the relator probably supposed. It is as follows:

When Lieut. Emory stopped at Panama, on his return to the United States, last spring, he encountered an American at that place half seas over, with whom he got into an interesting conversation. "Why don't you return to your country?" said Lieut. Emory. "Return to my country! Never!" "Why?" "Because I am a Manifest Destiny Man, and my country will be along here long before I die!"

THE AZTEC CLUB.—The American army officers, since their entrance into the city of Mexico, have formed a club, called the Aztec Club.

The object of this club is similar to those of the military clubs of England—that of coming together in friendly intercourse. Every general officer of the army, with the exception of one, is a member, and the club promises to be one of mutual and social benefit to all. The following are its officers—President, Gen. J. A. Quitman; 1st Vice President, Col. Harney; 2d Vice President, Capt. Magruder; Treasurer, S. Anderson; Secretary, E. Hammond, Esq.; Committee of Arrangements, Capt. Grayson, Major Van Buren and Lieut. Grafton.

GEN. TWIGGS.—The Democrats of the Georgia Legislature, on the last ballot for United States Senator, voted for this brave old officer. He received 78 out of 174 votes.

NORFOLK BEACON OFFICE DESTROYED.—The office of the Norfolk Beacon and the extensive reading room attached, were entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday night.

A TRIAL UNDER THE GAMBLING LAW occurred in Lancaster last week, in which the accused was charged with keeping a ten pin alley, where money was played for. The jury acquitted.

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The Carlisle Herald notices the mysterious disappearance from his father's house, a few days since, of Mr. John Blair, a young man of highly estimable character, who had just completed a course of legal study, and passed a most creditable examination previous to being formally admitted to the bar.

LARGE FAILURE IN BOSTON.—A telegraphic announcement, received in New York on Sunday evening, says:

"A great sensation was produced in the city, on 'Change, at the announcement of the failure of a firm largely engaged in the iron trade. The amount is estimated at one million of dollars."

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH FOR THE LEDGER.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 23.

The New Orleans papers of the 16th have failed, but private letters of that date state that there had been no later arrivals from Mexico.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.

The markets to-day are generally unchanged, but flour has slightly declined in price, the receipts being large. The cotton market remains heavy. The supply of grain is small, and there are more buyers than sellers. The tobacco market is brisk. Hemp is in good demand. The supply of sugar in first hands is large. Molasses continues dull. The coffee market is active. The river has 6½ feet of water in the channel.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23.

A sale of 1300 bbls Howard street flour was made to-day at $5 75, and 1000 City Mills at $5 87½; rye flour $5 25 to $5 43¾; white wheat 132 to 135, and red at 126 to 131; white corn 56 to 58; yellow 67 to 70; oats 40; rye 88 to 91; Whiskey 28½.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

[illegible] of the barque Fame, of New London, Connecticut, was brought before Thos. L. Kane, Esq., U. S. Commissioner, charged with having been engaged in the slave trade. He was arrested at Rio Janeiro by Gorham Parks, American Consul, and sent on for trial by the barque Globe, Capt. Esling, which arrived on Sunday last. Luther Toole, one of the crew, was also sent on to give evidence. It appears from the testimony that in 1846 the Fame arrived at Oahu, Sandwich Islands. The captain and first mate being dead, the American Consul appointed the second mate, Anthony Parks, captain, and shipped a crew from the hospital at the island. Wm. Browne, the prisoner, was appointed second mate, and Luther Toole was one of the crew.

The vessel sailed for the United States, but coming round Cape Horn was found to be leaky, and therefore put into Rio Janeiro in December, 1846. They remained there until February, 1847, and then put to sea, ostensibly for a whaling voyage. There were three passengers on board, two Frenchmen and a Portuguese sea captain. After they were some time out, the crew were informed that the vessel was bound for the East Coast of Africa, after a cargo of negroes. In May they arrived at a town on the East Coast, and the Portuguese captain and the two Frenchmen went ashore, and were gone nearly two days. They returned in the night, with eight or ten boat loads of negroes, some five or six hundred in number, which were taken on board, and the barque sailed for Brazil. They landed them at Cape Frio. Our consul took measures to arrest the officers and crew. The captain and crew escaped, but Plunkett, the first mate, and the prisoner, with Luther Toole, one of the crew, were arrested. Plunkett was sent to the United States for trial in the frigate Columbia, which has arrived at Norfolk. The District Attorney, Thos. M. Pettit, Esq., appeared for the United States.

Mr. Vandyke, for the prisoner, argued that it was shown by the testimony that the prisoner was a foreigner, being an unnaturalized Englishman; the prosecution must show that the vessel belonged to the United States. The act of Congress of 1800 will not apply to a foreign vessel manned by a foreign crew. The act of 1820 makes the offence piracy in any officer or person belonging to the crew voluntarily serving in a vessel employed in the slave trade. It was argued that the prisoner served by compulsion from his superior officers. Mr. Commissioner Kane said, that a clear prima facie case was made out, he therefore bound over the prisoner in $1000 bail to answer the charge. Luther Toole was bound in $100, to testify.

Serious Accident.—An accident of a serious nature occurred in Ninth street, above Fitzwater, yesterday morning, about ten o'clock. A lad, about twelve years of age, the son of John McCann, of Moyamensing, was thrown from a cart that was going at considerable speed, and one of the heavy wheels passed over his head, causing a shocking wound, though without [illegible]uring the skull. He was taken into Mr. Weber's [illegible] store, corner of Ninth and Shippen streets, [illegible]e he was examined by Drs. E. H. Watson and [illegible] W. Evans, and subsequently conveyed to the Hospital.

More Aid to the Families of the Volunteers.—We understand that at a meeting of Col. Page's company of State Fencibles, a few evenings since, it was unanimously resolved to give, of one that company's popular and recherche balls, the whole proceeds of which to go to the families residing among us, of our patriotic volunteers in Mexico. The Fencibles purposely refrained last year from their usual annual festival because many of their brother volunteers, and several of their own members were absent, surrounded with the perils of war, in an enemy's country, and because respect for their dangers seemed to render any public demonstration of festivity on their part indelicate, if not improper. But believing now that they can turn an entertainment, that tact and good management have rendered popular, to good account for the families of their absent brethren, they have resolved to give it. Consequently, preparations are in progress for a grand subscription ball, to come off the next or following week at the Musical Fund Hall. That there may be no room to cavil or doubt the application of the entire proceeds to the families of the volunteers in Mexico, a committee of the subscribers to the ball will be appointed by the subscribers themselves, to act in conjunction with a committee of the families in the distribution of the proceeds, and who will unite in publishing a full account of how they have executed their trust. Under such management and care there can be no doubt several hundred dollars will be realized, and subscribers, in enjoying the pleasures of one of the best balls of the season, can console themselves with the reflection that in their own mirth and pleasure they remember and relieve the sufferings of the dependent families of those whom duty and patriotism have called away to defend and protect their country's rights and honor. The example is a good one on the part of the Fencibles, and independent of the good flowing directly from it to the families of volunteers, may, in its success, induce other volunteer corps to do likewise.

The Pea Patch Case.—This case has been postponed until Saturday next at 10 o'clock, when it is expected the arguments will be commenced.

The only business done yesterday, was the production in evidence by Mr. Bayard, of a commission from John Penn, Richard Penn, and Thos. Penn, proprietaries, to the Hon. Patrick Gordon, Deputy Governor and others. It is produced from the original records belonging to the State of Delaware. It is dated May, 1732, recites the difficulties between Penn and Lord Baltimore, in relation to the boundaries of their respective grants, and that certain boundaries have been agreed upon between them as laid down upon a map on the margin of the Commission itself. Gov. Gordon and the others named in the Deed, are authorized to ascertain and settle the boundaries, in accordance therewith. This authority proved unsuccessful, in terminating the difficulty; the parties could not agree. And afterwards the bill in Equity of Penn vs. Lord Baltimore was filed, and the matter disposed of by Lord Hardwick in 1750.

The Camden County Murder.—The deep interest taken by our community, as well as that of Camden, in the capture of the murderer of the late Mr. Roberts, is unparalleled in this vicinity. It forms almost the sole topic of conversation, and as every one has a different idea in relation to the probabilities of his arrest and his present whereabouts, the rumors that prevail are as numerous as they are varied. It was reported yesterday afternoon, that a man, who proved to be a neighbor of the deceased, had been arrested at Woodbury and committed for an investigation, on a suspicion that he was the murderer. After making many inquiries, and being unable to trace the report to any authentic source, we came to the conclusion that it was not founded in truth. Other reports, the purport of which was that the suspected individual had been seen in certain quarters of the city or county, prevailed throughout the day and evening, with the addition that persons were on his track, rendering his arrest certain.

Very Gloomy.—What was the matter last night with the public lamps? Not a single one in the city, as far as we had the misfortune to perambulate, was to be found lighted, until a late hour in the evening. The plague of darkness seemed to have descended upon us suddenly. The gloom that hangs over English commercial affairs was effulgence itself, compared with the triple distilled darkness that descended upon our benighted city. What economical fit came over our city fathers? Or was this poor providence the act of those who take charge of the city lamps? Good Messrs. Lamp-lighters, we beseech you to enlighten us as well on this point as in the future upon the matter that moves our special inquiry and wonderment. Our city, we know, is the most enlightened in the Union, a character your efforts do not contribute to give her—but you should remember that like many of the fair planets, she shines not by her own lustre, but by the light that she borrows. We also know that the moon, according to her duty and the almanac, should have shone last night, but a neglect of duty on her part is no excuse for similar remissness on yours. An envious cloud covered fair Dian's visage, and her lamp, like yours, was untrimmed and empty, but no cloud of forgetfulness should ever be allowed, good Messieurs Lamplighters, to obscure the clear light of your duty to the public. We do not wish to touch you too tenderly, but how can you in conscience next pay day, demand wages for duty unperformed? Have you no consideration for the piles of wealth which are stored in the warehouses of this goodly city, that you should cover with a cloak of such dimensions the depredator? Have you no regard for decrepid age, stumbling even in daylight by its feebleness—no feeling for tender corns coming in collision with encroaching door-steps, and no consideration for newly blackened boots dipping into nasty mud puddles? Have you no fears of the public and no desire for your salaries? All the prayers of next thanksgiving will scarcely relieve you from the blessings bestowed upon you last night by the public. Pray you deserve better.

Kensington Water Works.—The Board of Commissioners of the district of Kensington held a special meeting on Monday evening, in relation to the contemplated construction of Water Works in that district. The committee appointed at the previous meeting upon the subject, reported and recommended as a site for the reservoir, a lot of ground a short distance out of the limits of the district, bounded on the north by Lehigh street, on the south by Huntington street, on the east by Apple street, and on the west by Sixth street, Fifth street running through it. This lot, the report of the committee stated, could be obtained at the rate of $1,800 per acre. The report was accepted, and a resolution was adopted giving authority to the committee "to purchase the two plots of ground of the representatives of the Norris estate, lying in Fairhill district, if the same can be got at a price the committee may think right, and to be paid for in district scrip."

No other matter of importance was done at the meeting.

Honor to the Brave.—A large meeting of the friends of Lieut. Jas. A. Deany, of the Cadwalader Grays, was held at the Southwark Hall on Monday evening, for the purpose of presenting to that gallant soldier some testimonial of their approbation of his conduct at the battle of Huamantla. Lieut. Deany was one of the first that rushed to the rescue of the almost overpowered little band of the lamented Walker, and also succeeded in winning for the Pennsylvanians the honor of planting their standard upon the walls of the captured city. It was resolved to procure a suitable sword and present the same to Lieut. Deany, and a committee was appointed to receive contributions for carrying the same into effect.

Stabbing Affair.—On Monday evening, Charles McGuigan and Bernard Muldoon, two lads about eighteen years of age, while engaged in conversation near the Hancock Hall, in Shippen street, above Ninth, the personal prowess of one was impeached by the other, and hard words ensuing, McGuigan inflicted a serious stab with his knife in the left side of Muldoon. The offender made his escape, and though the officers were in search of him, he had not been arrested up to last evening. Muldoon was removed to his home in Lebanon street, below Fitzwater, where he was attended by Dr. Duffee. The wound was deemed to be so serious in its nature, that Alderman Fletcher took the deposition of the sufferer on Monday night, but yesterday his condition was much improved.

Sale of Stocks and Real Estate.—The following [illegible] Exchange, by M. Thomas & Son: [illegible] Penn Township, 30 to 30½; 10 Kensington Bank, 55½; 10 Western Bank, 49; 5 Bank of North America, 120½; 10 Mutual Insurance Co., 11½; 42 Franklin Ins. Co., 127½. Two ground rents, amounting to $60 per annum, $1,010; lot and frame messuage, New Market street, subject to $10 ground rent, $1,425; store and dwelling, No. 208 North Second street, 20 feet front, by 120 deep, subject to $300 ground rent, $2,100; brick dwelling, Carpenter street, west of Fifth, (Eldridge estate,) 18 feet front by 70½ deep, $1,200; lot of ground adjoining on the east, 16 feet by 73½ deep, $450; lot adjoining, at the corner, 21½ feet on Fifth, and 59 feet 5 inches on Carpenter, $700; lot adjoining on the north, 16 feet on Fifth, by 56½ deep, $400; lot adjoining, 16 feet by 53 deep, $390; brick dwelling adjoining on the north, 16 feet 2 inches by 49½ deep, $1,100; brick dwelling adjoining, same dimensions, $1,250; frame house and lot adjoining, 15 feet 2 inches front by 81½ deep, $570; two-story frame and lot, Christian below Second, 20½ feet front by 120 deep, subject to $13 ground rent, $1,210; three-story brick, Carlton street, 17 feet front by 44½ deep, subject to $18 ground rent, $400; house adjoining, same description and ground rent, $355; three-story brick, Carlton street, 13 feet by 38 deep, subject to $36 ground rent, $315.

The Conspiracy Case.—Yesterday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, the case of the Commonwealth vs. Isaiah Toy, charged with conspiracy, as before reported, was resumed, and the whole of the two sessions was taken up with the hearing of the evidence for the defence. The arguments of counsel will be heard to-day.

Assaults and Batteries.—Yesterday, John Greser was bound over by Alderman Brazer, on a charge of assault and battery on John Riter, with intent to kill him. The offence was alleged to have been committed at a public house in James street. The defendant was held in $500 to answer.

Patrick McGranagan was yesterday charged before Alderman Ash, by James Blumer, with an assault and battery upon him in his own house. The allegation was, that the defendant, who is an officer, arrested him at that place, and on taking him to the Moyamensing Hall, knocked him down, without provocation. He was also bound over.

Sentenced.—Yesterday, Robert Watts, a lad, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny, was sentenced by Judge Kelley to the House of Refuge.

Dallas Meeting at Camden.—The friends of the Hon. George M. Dallas held a meeting last evening in Camden, for the purpose of supporting him as a candidate for the Presidency. The firing of cannon earlier in the evening, was adopted by the committee of arrangement, for the purpose of reminding the citizens of Camden that the meeting was to be held.

Broke his Ankle.—About 11 o'clock yesterday morning, Alexander Wilson fell into a well 16 feet deep, near the county prison, and broke his ankle. He was taken to the Hospital.

Blown Up.—John McBride, while employed in filling a blast at a quarry, a mile above Conshohocken, early yesterday morning, was dreadfully injured by its becoming ignited. His face and hands were much burned, and one finger entirely torn off. Taken to the Hospital.

Shocking Event.—Timothy Hurley, about 50 years of age, who was employed in the dyeing establishment of Peter Hickey, in Kensington, while tending a vat of hot water, about 5 o'clock, on Monday afternoon, unfortunately slipped in and was immersed into the scalding liquid up to his neck. He was extricated almost immediately, but was so seriously scalded from head to foot, that scarcely any hopes are entertained of his recovery. He still survived last evening at the Hospital.

No Pay, no Work.—A Camden paper states that the operatives at one of the most extensive carpet manufactories in that city, have found it necessary to cease work and call on the Sheriff to secure their pay.

Creditable.—Mr. McGuigan, the Janitor of the Chinese Museum, has kindly offered the free use of the saloon of that building, to the Virginia Serenaders, at their benefit in aid of the Pennsylvania Volunteers.

Fined.—Three individuals were each fined five dollars yesterday by the Mayor, under the new ordinance, for being off the regular stand with their chaises.

Zoological Institute.—We are glad to see this popular place of amusement again open. They have the finest and largest collection of living animals that we have ever witnessed. The grand performance given by the renowned Herr Driesbach, with his trained animals, is a treat itself. Also the well trained monkeys, with their ponies, are well worth the price of admission.

Camden Improvements.—Among the new buildings now erecting in every portion of Camden, is one which deserves mention, as it will be the most magnificent in that city. It is situated on Market street, and is intended for Mr. Browning, the Attorney General. The appearance of the building does great credit to the constructors, Messrs. J. R. & T. B. Atkinson. The cost will not be less than $12,000.

The Sable Harmonists, at Peale's Museum, give concerts every evening, in addition to the exhibition of Brown's Gallery of National Portraits. These portraits were painted in Mexico, and are good likenesses of General Taylor and Staff. They continue to attract great attention.

Herz, Sivori and Knoop, decidedly the three greatest instrumental performers in the country, will give, positively, their last concert in this city, on Friday evening of this week, at the Museum Building in Ninth street. That none may be deprived of hearing them, for the first time, and for this particular occasion, the price of tickets will be but fifty cents.

☞ Again we respectfully solicit any who are afflicted with diseases of the Chest, such as Consumption, Clergymen's Sore Throat or Bronchitis, to read the certificates of cures, and visit those who have been providentially rescued from an untimely grave, by the use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. Certainly the public can no longer be in doubt, after the amount of respectable testimony laid before them, that no remedy is equal to this Syrup for the cure of incipient Consumption; and after visiting the proprietor at his office, who was reduced to the lowest extreme in Consumption, and others (whose certificates are in a pamphlet to be had gratis,) who are living evidences, to testify to the almost miraculous effect of the Syrup, no one, we say, but must admit that Consumption, even in its worst form, can be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. For sale at the Proprietor's Principal Office, No. 32 South Sixth street. Price $1 per bottle, or $5 per half dozen.

☞ On motion of Edgar E. Petit, Esq., WILLIAM A. HUSBAND was this day admitted to practise as an Attorney of the District Court, and Court of Common Pleas, for the City and County of Philadelphia.

☞ A great excitement and extraordinary crowd daily at BENNETT & Co.'s Philadelphia Hall of Fashion, 182 Market street, between Fifth and Sixth. In consequence of the very low rates at which the proprietors are offering their unequalled stock of ready made Clothing, this may truly be said to be the place where all can be "suited."

☞ If the person who reads this intends to purchase a Hat soon, and will take the pains to come in a by-street, and up a pair of stairs, when he wants one, he can save from one to two dollars by so doing, if he will call at F. DAMAS'S, No. 1 Strawberry street, second-story. This is strictly the fact. No disappointment need be apprehended.

☞ A list of the cities and towns of the whole country, terms of advertising, &c., may be had gratis of the Agent, V. B. Palmer, who daily forwards advertisements to the newspapers for which he is specially appointed and empowered by the publishers to transact business. For the Spring trade of the South and West, and for neighboring trade, previous to the Holidays, now is the time to invite customers—at least by those who choose to take the lead in their respective pursuits.

☞ Soon will Winter with his icy train
Predominant o'er the other seasons reign,
Just like the triumph long been made
In the Philadelphia Clothing trade;
But they who tremble at the Winter's cold,
Will feel enraptur'd when they're told,
That Lippincott, Taylor & Co., have now complete
Their Winter's stock, at No. 200 Market street;
Where they offer to give to any who can find,
A stock so large and cheap, of any kind,
A suit of clothes! But they know full well
That no other house, so cheap by 20 per ct. can sell.
The crowds who daily patronize this celebrated store
Acknowledge that their prices are all lower
Than others in the trade; added to the great variety
Has gained for them a name of so much notoriety.
Remember, the sales rooms are Nos. 166, 198 and 200 Market st. LIPPINCOTT, TAYLOR & Co., Proprietors.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING! CLOTHING!—Now on hand and ready for disposal, the largest and most splendid assortment of new styles Winter Clothing ever before offered. Having completed my fall and winter arrangements, I am prepared to supply my numerous patrons with garments which, for neatness in style and workmanship, combined with very low prices, cannot be excelled. Those who wish a good suit of clothes will find it to their interest to call at C. HARKNESS', Agent for the sale of R. Heinisch's Premium Shears Trimmers and Ladies' Scissors, No. 129 Market st., S. E. corner of Fourth.

☞ Thousands come forward and openly declare that they have never experienced so much benefit from any medicine as DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Spitting Blood, Tickling or Rising in the Throat, Nervous Debility, Weak Voice, Pains in the Side and Breast, Liver Complaint, &c. Auctioneers, Clergymen, and all public speakers, say that it gives that vigor to the voice which cannot be obtained from any other article. All preparations of Wild Cherry are fictitious and counterfeit, except Dr. Swayne's. Principal office, corner of Eighth and Race sts.

☞ All begin to see the importance of dropping their Letters for city distribution into the Boxes "in the Store" which have "D. O. Blood & Co." on them. Three Deliveries each day, 7 and 10, A. M., and 2½, P. M. Single Letters TWO CENTS.

CHEAPEST IN THE WORLD.—Silk Hats $1 and $1 50; Moleskin, $2 00; Extra do., $2 50; Beaver Hats equally low. All got up in the best and most fashionable style, and warranted 25 per cent. cheaper than they can be bought elsewhere.

Also, a complete assortment of Men's, Youth's and Children's Caps, very cheap, at No. 3 South Fifth st., below Market, 2d story.

BEAUTIFUL JOB PRINTING, of all kinds, is daily executed at the United States Steam Job Printing Establishment, Ledger Building, southwest corner of Third and Chesnut sts.

LATEST STYLE CLOTHING.—Elegant new style Vests and Vestings, cut after the most approved styles; beautiful pantaloons, cut after the latest fashion; Overcoats, Cloth Cloaks, Sack Coats, Business Coats, Dress and Frock Coats, all of which are made in the best workmanlike manner. Gentlemen who pay cash can get Clothing that will become their figure, and better goods, styles and make, than they can obtain from any Customer Tailor in the city, and at half the prices. For this reason we buy and sell as many fine goods as all the Customer Tailors together in Philadelphia. Remember, we don't keep the same character of goods that Clothing Stores generally do.

☞ TOWN MEETING.—THE FAMILIES OF THE PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.—Aid and Comfort to the Kinsfolk of the Brave.—At a large and enthusiastic meeting convened in the County Court House, on Monday evening, for the purpose of devising means to collect funds in aid of the suffering relations of the Pennsylvania Volunteers serving in Mexico,

Richard Vaux, Esq., called the meeting to order, and nominated the following gentlemen as officers:—
President—Col. John Swift, Mayor of the City.
Vice President—W. Sayre Heysham.
Secretary—Robert F. Christy.

Frederick Stoever, Esq., Treasurer of the Committee, made a report, that has been already published, and which was adopted, and the thanks of the meeting were tendered to that officer.

His Honor, on taking the Chair, addressed the meeting in a series of felicitous remarks, in reference to the sufferings of the relatives of our absent volunteers; and was followed by Messrs. David Paul Brown, Richard Vaux, Robert M. Lee, Thomas B. Florence, Andrew Miller, Joel B. Sutherland, and others, who arrested the attention of the audience until a late hour, by their happy and well-timed remarks.

It appeared that upwards of 500 persons have been relieved from the fund previously collected.

By request of the meeting, Mr. Stoever was unanimously induced to continue as Treasurer of the Committee.

Richard Vaux, Esq., presented the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, by the report of Frederick Stoever, Esq., [illegible] last, it appears that the fund [illegible] of relieving the destitute wives, mothers and children of the gallant citizen soldiers, now absent in the service of their country in Mexico, as well as for the relief of the widows and orphans of the gallant dead, has been exhausted. The approach of winter admonishes us of the performance of a duty which we owe to these deserving objects of the public regard, and it is earnestly to be hoped that those who feel the force of the obligation will not now be wanting.

The absent volunteer leaves his family in the charge of his country, and upon every citizen may be said to devolve a share of the responsibility. He goes, at the call of his government, to perform a patriotic and perilous duty in a far-off and hostile land. Shut out from all communication with those nearest and dearest to him, by swarms of marauding assassins, he feels conscious that they are safe in the arms of a generous and confiding and grateful country. Impelled by no hope of gain—no prospect of reward, save that which is gathered by gallant deeds, in the heat of the battle, he would be paralyzed indeed if he felt that his family were left without protectors during his weary and protracted absence. But he knows that those he loves will not be left to meet the pelting of the pitiless storm, or to brave the blasts of winter.

Resolved, That as a slight tribute to our absent fellow citizens, we shall hasten to discharge the obligations which we owe to their families, by the contributing of our means to their support.

Resolved, That we do sincerely condole with the bereaved families of those brave men who have been stricken down by battle and disease, and that we shall esteem it a melancholy duty to contribute of our means to their relief.

Resolved, That we have reason to be proud of the gallant Pennsylvanians now in Mexico, and that while the character of the State is in their hands abroad, we shall take care of those in which they feel an interest at home.

Resolved, That we call upon our fellow-citizens in the respective counties of this Commonwealth, who are not represented in Mexico, to aid us in this pleasing and patriotic duty.

Resolved, That the officers of this meeting be requested to appoint Committees for the purpose of collecting funds for the relief of the wives, mothers, and children of our absent volunteers, and also for the relief of the widows of the brave who have fallen in battle, or died of disease in Mexico.

Mr. Wm. P. Long, Manager, on behalf of the company of "Virginia Serenaders," tendered in the kindest manner, the services of that corps for a benefit in aid of this fund, on Friday evening, in the Chinese Museum.

On motion of R. F. Christy, the thanks of the meeting were unanimously tendered to Mr. Long and the company, for their generous offer; whereupon the proffered benefit was accepted by the meeting.

On motion of Wm. B. Rankin, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be published in the papers.

The names of the Committee will be announced when appointed.
JOHN SWIFT, President.
W. SAYRE HEYSHAM, Vice President.
R. F. CHRISTY, Sec'y. n24-1t§

☞ HONOR TO THE BRAVE.—Pursuant to public notice, a large number of the friends of LIEUT. JAMES A. DEANEY, Co. H, (Cadwalader Grays) 1st Penn'a Regiment, met at the Southwark Hall, on Monday Evening, 22d inst., to make arrangements to testify, in some suitable manner, their appreciation of his gallantry at the battle of Huamantla. Mr. C. T. MYERS was called to the chair, and Messrs. J. B. Hoffman, James Braceland, B. L. Berry, Wm. V. McGrath, Thomas Daly and P. M. Shulls appointed Vice Presidents; and Myles M. Tully and John T. Money, Secretaries. The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a few appropriate remarks, when

On motion, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Michael Murphy, J. W. Higgins, Jas. M. Jackson and Thos. Brown, was appointed to draught resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

During the absence of the committee the meeting was entertained by Wm. V. McKean, Esq., in a few eloquent remarks in allusion to the brilliant achievements of the American arms in Mexico, and the character and conduct of Lieut. Deaney. The committee returned and reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, By the recent intelligence from Mexico, we learn with pleasure the conspicuous part borne by Pennsylvania Volunteers in the brilliant victories there achieved; and whereas, by the services then rendered, and particularly in the recent action at Huamantla, our fellow-townsman and friend, Lieut. Jas. A. Deaney, of Co. A. (Cadwalader Grays,) 1st Reg't, by his gallantry and daring, in being the first to rush to the rescue of the almost overpowered little band of the lamented Walker, and in winning for Pennsylvania the honor of planting the first flag on the walls of the town, fully realizes our high anticipations of him, that wherever opportunity offers he will earn distinction for himself and additional glory for our State. Therefore,

Resolved, That in testimony of our esteem and high regard for Lieut. Deaney, as well for his worth as a citizen as his abilities and conspicuous gallantry as a soldier, we will procure and present to him a suitable sword.

Resolved, That a Committee of ten persons be appointed to receive contributions, and to carry out the foregoing resolution.

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen, under the second resolution—Messrs. Nich. Murphy, D. D. Dick, Jas. M. Jackson, Shubert Iseminger, Thos. Browne, Wm. Byrne, T. W. Higgins, Geo. Schock, Isaac Taylor and Robt. T. Carter.

On motion, the officers of the meeting were added to the committee.

A. A. Gilden, Esq. being called upon, made a few eloquent remarks.

On motion, the proceedings were ordered to be published, and the meeting then adjourned, to meet again on the call of the committee.
C. T. MYERS, President.

THE GREATEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD! READ! READ! READ!!!
STILL ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE!
NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 19, 1847.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir—This is to certify that my wife was attacked with a violent cough, which settled on her lungs; violent pains in the side and breast, spitting of blood, loss of appetite, great debility, and all the symptoms of confirmed Consumption. She was attended by three physicians, all of whom pronounced her beyond recovery. I was at this time recommended to try your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. With little or no hopes, I procured two bottles of Dr. Slemmer, of this place, and, by its use, I am obliged to confess that its effects were really surprising. She had been unable to do anything for the last eight months; at times she would spit blood by the tumbler full; but, by the use of your valuable Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry was entirely cured, and is now attending to her housework as usual. My intention in calling at your office, was to see you personally, and offer thanks and gratitude to you as a public benefactor, for compounding such a valuable medicine as yours has proved to be in the above case. WILLIAM ALEXANDER.

If you, reader, are an invalid, resort to this great vegetable remedy at once; a remedy which has cured its thousands, and may cure you. "Dr. Swayne's Guide to Health" can be obtained gratis, setting forth an array of testimony which will convince the most skeptical. Read it carefully, preserve it, give it to your friends—by so doing you will cause many an eye to glisten with joy.

But be careful that you are not imposed upon by the worthless preparations purporting to contain Wild Cherry, that flood the country at the present day, and prepared by persons who have no knowledge of the science of medicine, either in theory or practice. Remember, inquire particularly for the original preparation, DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY—all others being positively fictitious and counterfeit.

The genuine article is prepared only by DOCTOR SWAYNE, Inventor and Sole Proprietor, corner of EIGHTH and RACE streets, Philadelphia. All Wild Cherry preparations being "positively fictitious and counterfeit" without his signature.

For sale—by Agents—in all the principal towns throughout the United States. n24-tJa28r

CHRISTIE'S genuine GALVANIC RINGS, BANDS, BRACELETS, BELTS, NECKLACES, GALVANIC STRENGTHENING PLASTERS, MAGNETIC FLUID, &c., are a certain cure for this agonizing complaint, in all its stages. A few hours are sufficient to cure recent cases, and a few days the most severe.

Things in New York.

TUESDAY, 4 o'clock, P. M.

We have, at last, the official returns of the late election in our State complete. They show an aggregate vote of the State was 311,003, which is a falling off from the vote of '44, of 161,145. Of this deficiency 104,811 belongs on the Democratic, and 56,334 on the Whig side. The Whig majority on some of the candidates exceeds 38,000.

In June last, at the Judicial election, the democratic majorities ranged from fifteen to eighteen thousand, showing a difference or a loss to the democrats of 55,000 votes. Fillmore is elected Comptroller by 21,000 less votes than were given for Governor Young. So much for the domestic feuds of partisanship.

Yesterday 209 recruits for the army in Mexico, were shipped at Fort Columbus on board the ship Hannah, bound for Vera Cruz. One hundred of these are recruits for the 5th infantry, and the balance are volunteers for Col. Burnett's regiment.

Well, the eventful night of the opening of the New Opera House in Astor place has passed, and every body is better satisfied than before, that it will be but an ephemeral and unpopular affair.

The expenses are about $800 a night—the receipts last night fell considerably short of that amount. So much of the house as is devoted exclusively to subscribers, and to which there is no admission for casual visiters, is very luxuriously furnished, well arranged, and, when well filled as it was last night, present an imposing appearance.

The amphitheatre, so termed, but in reality the third tier, to which purchased tickets are confined, is very inconvenient and illy provided, and few will venture there more than once. I feel very confident that from this latter department the house will not realize on an average $50 per night, through the season.

There will inevitably be a heavy loss to be sustained somewhere before the season is over. The artists are very creditable in their profession, and are well liked; though, truth to say, they have been surpassed by more than one Italian troupe which has appeared here. The truth is, there is no favorable interest felt toward the concern out of the immediate circle of exclusives who have the monopoly of the house; there is much feeling against it amongst almost every other class of our community; the masses despise the aristocratic principles which governs the whole; and, as a necessary consequence, the affair must be a failure, unless a material change in its government is effected. "Japonicadom" in New York is entirely too feeble and cod-fishey to sustain it against popular disfavor.

The counsel of Madame Restell made another effort this morning, before the General Term of the Supreme Court, to get her discharged on bail. No progress was made in the attempt. Meanwhile, Madame occupies two well furnished apartments in the Eldridge street jail, and "lives like a fighting cock."

The weather continues warm and sultry. A considerable rain has fallen during the past twenty-four hours, but it comes mostly in mist and light showers.

There is not much to notice in our markets to-day. Ashes are heavy and inactive, and have fallen to $8 for pearls and $6 25 for pots.

Cotton has sustained a fall of ¼ cent per lb. since the receipt of the Acadia's news, and the market is quiet to-day—sales say 1000 bales.

Sales of Genesee flour to-day, at $6 18¾ a $6 25; Western $6 12½ for straight, and $6 06¼ for mixed brands. Rye flour dull, at $4 75 a $5 12½. Corn meal steady at previous prices.

Wheat is heavy, and buyers hold off. Sales of corn at 73 a 74c for mixed; 76 a 77 for northern round. Oats steady at 50 a 51c; rye quiet at 90c.

Nothing has been done in pork or beef since Saturday. Other descriptions of provision are drooping and dull.

There was a fair amount of stock sales this morning, and in some descriptions at better prices.

LEDGER & TRANSCRIPT.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24.

The Money Market.

The following communication contains matter of public concern. We, therefore, cheerfully comply with the request of the author to publish it, and to accompany it with some remarks of our own:

Editors Public Ledger—The retail dealers of Philadelphia have, for some time, suffered much inconvenience and loss from the kind of currency in which three-fourths of their business is transacted, viz: the bank notes of the neighboring States. There being no prospect of any beneficial change in this state of affairs, I would suggest for public consideration, whether we should not ask the Legislature to pass a law permitting any or every bank in this State to issue one, two and three dollar notes, to any amount, having first deposited with the State Treasurer Pennsylvania or United States stock to the same amount that each proposed to issue of said notes, the notes to be countersigned by the Treasurer. Such a law, I think, would be attended with much advantage to the public, and I cannot see why much objection should be made to it.

A RETAILER, in Second street.

Our views in reference to the circulation of small notes have been so often expressed, that it is hardly necessary to repeat them here. We are and ever have been opposed to them, for the reason that, to the extent that they find favor with the public, do they keep coin out of circulation—and coin, for all small business transactions, we hold to be not only the safest but the most convenient currency in existence. We would much rather petition the Legislature to withdraw all the "Relief" notes, and to make it the duty of the law officers of the Commonwealth to enforce the laws against the circulation of all notes under five dollars. Every dollar of this flimsy, depreciated trash represents a dollar of coin, and if it was all driven home to its source, coin would at once fill its place. We have strong hopes that the Legislature will, of itself, from the manifest propriety and policy of the measure, and without any prayer or petition on the part of its constituents, take some efficient action in this matter the coming session. The other issue raised by our correspondent, that of requiring the deposit of State loans for the redemption of bank notes of the denomination of five dollars, will bear consideration; and, indeed, we have heard that a banking project, having such a proposition for its base, a system something similar to the free banking law of New York, will be urged at the coming session of the Legislature. One good effect resulting from its adoption, would be the appreciation of State loans, through the demand thus created for them, to say nothing of the other strong recommendation in its favor, greater protection to the noteholders from losses by broken banks.

The stock market showed unusual fluctuation in the price of Reading R. shares yesterday—selling as high as 31¾ and as low as 30½. Penna. fives improved ½, and Government loans ¼. In other respects, the market did not show much variation from the previous day's sales.

THE GIRARD COLLEGE FOR ORPHANS.—The Board of Directors of the Girard College for Orphans, having taken charge of the premises and effects devised by Stephen Girard, and of the buildings erected by his trustees for a College for the maintenance and education of poor white male orphans between the ages of six and ten years; and having provided all things needful for carrying the general design into execution, now give notice:—

1st. That on the first day of January, 1848, the College will be opened for the reception of Orphans, according to the provisions of Stephen Girard's will, and according to any acts of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or ordinances of the Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia, which may be passed for the purpose of promoting the testator's objects.

2dly. That on and after the 15th day of December, 1847, the directors will elect the following officers and agents: A President of the College, a Matron, a Steward, a Principal Female Teacher, a First Assistant Female Teacher, a Second Assistant Female Teacher, four Governesses, and two Visiting Physicians; and that until the said day the Directors will receive applications from those who may desire to fill any of these stations.

3dly. That from and after the 1st day of December, 1847, the Directors will receive applications for the admission of Orphans into the College.

In order that those who may have the charge of Orphans, may act understandingly, the Directors prepared explanations and forms for their information, and they annex a copy of them to the present notice. They will, besides, give such further advice and aid to applicants as may facilitate the early admission of Orphans into the College.

Those who have heretofore applied for the admission of Orphans, are requested to call on some one of the Committee on Admissions, in order to put their several applications in the shape described in the annexed forms.

By order of the Board,
JOS. R. CHANDLER,
President of the Board of Directors,
Of the Girard College for Orphans.

ADMISSION OF ORPHANS.

The Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, trustees under the will of Stephen Girard, having caused a permanent College, with suitable out-buildings, to be erected and supplied with all things needful for the maintenance and education of poor white male orphan children therein, and having committed the College and its appurtenances to a board of sixteen directors, for the purpose of organizing and conducting the institution, the directors have decided to open the College on the 1st of January, 1848; and now communicate the following particulars of information to those especially who may desire to apply for the admission of orphans into it.

1. As many poor white male orphans, between the ages of six and ten years, are now to be admitted into the college, as the income, from the funds in the hands of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, as trustees for the college under the will of Stephen Girard, may be adequate to maintain and educate; and from time to time, as there may be vacancies, or as increased ability from income may warrant, other poor white male orphans, between the ages of six and ten years, are to be admitted.

2. Those orphans for whose admission application may be first made, are to be first introduced, all other things concurring.

3. If at any time there shall be more applicants for admission than can be admitted, and the applying orphans shall have been born in different places, a preference is to be given first to those born in the city of Philadelphia; secondly, to those born in any other part of Pennsylvania; thirdly, to those born in the city of New York; and lastly, to those born in the city of New Orleans.

4. Prior to the admission of an orphan, satisfactory explanation is to be given to the directors of the college by those applying for his admission, as to the pecuniary circumstances of the orphan and his immediate relatives.

5. The guardians for the relief and employment of the poor of the city of Philadelphia, the District of Southwark, and the Townships of the Northern Liberties and Penn, with the consent of the mother, guardian, or next friend of any orphan for whose admission into the college application may be made, and who may be admissable, or on their own authority, are to bind the orphan, by indenture, to the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, as trustees under the will of Stephen Girard, as an orphan to be admitted into the college, to be there maintained, clothed, and educated according to the provisions and under the regulations and restrictions specified and directed in the said will, and according to any act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, made for the purpose of enabling the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, as trustees under the will to carry the intentions of the testator faithfully into effect, and also according to any ordinance of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, which may be passed under the authority of any act of said Assembly, for faithfully carrying the testator's intentions into execution.

6. The indenture aforesaid is not to define any time at which the binding is to terminate; but, nevertheless, the binding is to expire at the furthest before the orphan shall arrive at the age of eighteen years; or, at the discretion of the trustees, the binding may be terminated at any time when the orphan shall be between the ages of fourteen and eighteen years; and, for malconduct on the part of an orphan, the trustees may cancel his indenture at any time whatever.

7. By the said indenture, the orphan is to be bound to abide by and submit to all the regulations and restrictions which are specified in the will of Stephen Girard, or which may be made and prescribed by any ordinance of the corporation of Philadelphia, or which may be introduced by the directors of the Girard College under the authority of any such ordinance, as fully as if he had been of legal age at time of the binding, and had then consented to abide by them.

8. Every orphan admitted into the college is to be entitled to all the benefits thereof, according to the will of its founder; and each party to the indenture is to be entitled to relief, for any breach of duty by the other, in the same manner as and before the same tribunals at which apprentices and their masters and mistresses are entitled to relief according to existing laws.

9. The founder of the college desired that by every proper means a pure attachment to our republican institutions and to the sacred rights of conscience, should be formed and fostered in the minds of the orphans; and he also desired that all the instructors and teachers in the college should take pains to instil into the minds of the orphans the purest principles of morality. He did not, however, declare what he considered the proper means for accomplishing these important ends; but imposed upon his "fellow citizens of Philadelphia" the serious and delicate responsibility of selecting them: this duty, it is believed, they will be anxious so to perform as to produce all the benefit anticipated by Stephen Girard.

[illegible] there fed with plain but wholesome food, clothed with plain but decent apparel, (no distinctive dress to be worn,) and lodged in a plain but safe manner.—Their persons and clothes are to be kept clean, and they are to have suitable and rational exercises and recreations, in order that, with other effects, they may have health.

11. Every orphan, admitted into the College, as soon as he shall arrive at between the fourteenth and eighteenth year of his age, and before his arrival at the age of eighteen years, is to be bound by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia, by indenture, to some suitable person in Pennsylvania, in either of the occupations of agriculture, navigation, arts, mechanical trades, or manufactures, according to the will of Stephen Girard, to serve as an apprentice for the term that may be specified in the indenture; so, however, that the term in every instance shall expire when the orphan shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years; and every orphan is to be bound to abide by all the provisions of the indenture as if he had been of full age at the time of the execution.

12. The Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Philadelphia are to be the guardians of every orphan admitted into the College, while he shall remain therein; and, in case any orphan shall become entitled to any property, while resident in the college, they are to take charge of it, attend to its accumulation and preservation, and deliver it to the orphan on his arrival at full age, or to his legal representatives in case he shall not live unto that age.

13. Those who may apply for the admission of an orphan into the college, should furnish to the directors of it, information as particular as possible respecting his health, and the diseases which he may have had.

14. The annexed is the form of a brief application for the admission of an orphan into the college. Probably no form, now prepared, would answer as a general one, but the form here presented may be varied from and enlarged according to circumstances. In order to render the application in each case as full and precise as possible, there is appended to the annexed form of application a list of questions to be answered on the part of each applicant, and these answers are to be regarded as representations made in the application itself.
